Helen Sheridan

Helen,
I hope your year goes great. I wish I was a junior.
Well, let's stay good friends, have fun this year

Helen
Hi! The year has been fun. I'm glad we are friends. I hope my yearbook picture is nice. It is nice just picture that I have ever taken on well. Have fun next year
Love Chris Gordon

Dear Helen,

Hello! You're pretty lucky for being an upper classman, but don't change. Okay?
Well, hope we stay friends.

Love,

Ruthie

Dear Helen,
Hey, we're Juniors!
How does it feel to be so old? Pretty good, right?
Well, it's been a long year, and I've got a feeling next year will be even longer. Hopefully we will have as much fun. Love, Lisa Q.

The decision to go to town is similar to the decision we make to go to Moreau. There are so many questions, plans that have to be made, such as where we want to go first, will we like it there and will it benefit us?

STEPPIN OUT into the city is like the beginning of our "Year on the Town."

Choosing a restaurant (choosing classes) is always the hardest thing to do because there are so many. Once we find one, we order what we want, then feed ourselves with information that will help us. Finishing dinner, we have to remember one important tip: Do not bite off more than we can chew!

As it grows later, we think of our experiences with people, activities, and other fun times shared, and we return home after our dazzling evening and year; we look back at our "Year on the Town", and treasure our past memories. Diane

StrikeUpThe Band!

This year has been a very demanding marching season, said Margaret Stevens. Moreau's award winning drum major, intense practice longer hours, and fierce competitors were the major reasons for the band's tremendous improvement.

The Mariner Band took fourth place in the Music Bowl this year, while Margaret captured first place as drum maior being named the 1982 Music Bowl Champion. Throughout the season Moreau competed in several marching band competitions such as the Independence Show, the Live Oak Show, and the State Open. The band took third place in each of these performances, and Margaret was named best drum major in the State Open. The band also appeared in the

Sr. Anne Festival Parade where they received a first place award.

To jazz things up after the marching season, Moreau formed a jazz band which consisted of about twenty people. This was strictly voluntary though students needed to audition to be members. This enthusiastic group of young musicians enjoyed playing a variety of music ranging

For the more serious musician, there was the symphonic band, which concentrates on a more serious level of classical music and literature. Moreau's pep band provided entertainment along with enthusiasm at our basketball games as they encouraged our teams on to victory.

Jazz it up!

Following the marching band season, the Jazz and Symphonic Band sprang into action. Both the Jazz & Symphonic bands could be found practicing from 7:30-8:00 before school every morning, but it was worth it, they felt. This year the Jazz and Symphonic bands had quite a busy schedule. Most of their time was spent preparing for Lincoln High School's Jazz Band Festival, March of Dimes "Walk-Amenca," the Christmas and Spring concert, and the most heartwarming of all ... the Champagne Concert where this year the Senior Soloist was the talented David Lozares playing the "First Movement of Piano Concerto in A Minor" (Natalie)

This year the drama department worked under new direction. Guided by new faculty member Ms. Dione Janssen, the department worked many hours during and after school for their first production of the year, Arsenic and Old Lace, written by Joseph Kesselring. The cast consisted of some four-year stage veterans as well as some newcomers. The play went over well, performing four nights drawing large crowds. The production mixed seriousness and light comedy with good stage sets and superb lighting. When it was all over, the cast recognized their strong efforts. Cosey Hofmann, who played Elaine Harper, put it this way: "Even though this production, like many others, had its ups and downs, in the long run, the sweat and hard work paid off!" The plot of the 1920s comedy is the place of a young woman in the hands of Nick Frisze. The story revolves around a young man named Nick Frisze at Madame Dubois's school where proper young ladies are prepared for marriage. Proper young men

Have you ever wondered what was on the third floor? Well, it's the place where the Brothers lived there. Have you ever wondered why the elevator has three buttons instead of two? Well, I said, our favorite people lived there. The brothers, our friends. Ever since the first day Moreau opened the Brothers have lived on the third floor. The rooms up there are the best kept secret in the school. It's the place where the Brothers lived.

For the past few years, our friends, brothers, and friends, have been using the elevator and the third floor will be used for the next few years. We are going to use them. (Dove T.)

Campus Ministry

"I have really enjoyed being a part of the Campus Ministry team," said senior Patty McKenney, who along with the new Campus Minister, Michael Schweickert-Story, Wally Mikula, Danny McCrossen, Trisha Roberts, and Tony Avila make up the Campus Ministry team.

This year has been a year of growth for me," said Mr. Schweickert-Story. "I have learned a lot and look forward to continuing relationships with students and faculty members that have developed this year." Practically speaking, as campus minister he was responsible for overseeing all matters relating to the spiritual life of the school community. This involved a variety of activities, the most important of which was being present to the students. "I really care for the students and am glad to be a part of Moreau," he explained.

Mr. Schweickert-Story felt that being married gave him a better idea of what family life is really like and helped him relate to the students. However, not having an on-campus priest had its drawbacks.

The Campus Ministry team organized many activities throughout the school year. Some include the Opening of School Mass, the Thanksgiving Food Drive, the Christmas Gift Drive, and the Christmas Party for the mentally retarded. They planned a Christmas Mass, class retreats, and a special collection for the people in Alviso who were left homeless by the floods.

"Close Up was a great experience. It was an opportunity to study about our government first hand," said senior Kim Roschewski.

Mr. and Mrs. Weiss were responsible for the Moreau group. For almost five full days fifty-eight students from Moreau were able to attend seminars ranging in topics from the presidency to nuclear weapons to international relations.

The students heard talks from Congressmen Pete Stark and Don Edwards.

Most of their time was spent on a bus where they were able to see much of Washington, from the most popular tourist sights to the most depressing slums.

The last day of the trip was set aside for students to choose what they would like to do.

There were many things to do so people had to choose carefully. Some visited the Washington Monument or the Lincoln or Jefferson Memorials. Others went to the Capital Building or observed the Senate Gallery in session. Some went shopping in Georgetown, visited the local universities or even went to the National Zoo. Many people chose to ride the Metro into Washington, D.C. and see the breathtaking view of the city from the top of the Washington Monument, or visit the Supreme Court, the Library of Congressmen and their families being as possible. The speaker of the day was available to the students was Arlington Cemetery where they could witness the changing of the guard of the tomb of the unknown soldier and the eternal flame of John F. Kennedy. The week was very busy and ended with a di-

Rendezvous

"Mystical Moments" were celebrated by all at the Rendezvous Restaurant in Fremont. Couples, from Freshmen to Seniors, enjoyed the fun-filled evening while dancing to the music of "Brazen" who rocked the energetic crowd from 9:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. The variety of music played provided something for everyone to strut their stuff on the dance floor.

Students were happily surprised that the location of the Christmas Ball had been changed from the cafeteria to a room elegantly decorated with white tablecloths and fresh flowers. These along with the dimmed lighting, established a romantic mood throughout the room.

The evening was a total success due to the Seniors' enthusiasm in organizing, preparing, and presenting a night of fun. Bibby Woelffer, who along with the Senate was heavily involved and took a tremendous part in presenting the dance, commented "Everyone seemed to be enjoying themselves, and seeing this made all the efforts and struggles in preparation seem worthwhile and rewarding." ## Powder Puffin'

For the sixth consecutive year, the junior and senior girls had the chance to play flag football on the Murrells Field. Preparation began months before the actual game took place on February 19. The Junior Clash and the Senior Psychos practiced after school and could be seen going over plays in their spare time at school.

A surprisingly nice night it was for the girls to show off their flag football talents. Before the game, many expected the more experienced Senior Psychos to win the game. They were wrong. The Junior Clash scored first and never fell behind. Late in the third quarter, the Psychos could have scored and won the game but tried one yard short of goal line. Everyone had a good time. # Cheers!

The Varsity Spirit Squads for the 1983 season were the best that Moreau had ever seen. Under the moderation of Yolanda Moran, the squads won numerous awards at the J.S.A. cheerleading camp held in August and went on to win various competitions, including the ever-so-famous Omega Kick-Off rally. For the first time in Moreau's history, the cheerleaders spirit squad and cheerleaders placed first, song leaders placed third and Moreau as a school took first place sweepstakes.

The cheerleading squads were headed by Senior Keri Webb, and the song leaders by Senior Carla Eberhard.

Both squads were known for their excellence, superiority and determination. Their high quality showed on the sidelines as well as on the basketball court. The squads agreed that the J.V. and Freshmen cheerleaders helped them tremendously in all of their efforts. Moreau's 1983 Spirit Squads will definitely go down in history because they can't be beat (Diane and Jan)

Before a yearbook can be designed, a theme must be created and then developed so that each section of the book can be incorporated into the theme. Many steps are taken to prepare a page to go into a yearbook. First a layout must be drawn then copy and captions must be written. After pictures are chosen they must be cropped so that they fit into their spaces.

In the interest of bettering Moreau's yearbook, Dave Tureaud and Lisa Hansen attended a seminar in Utah called Yearbook West. While there they learned the basics of yearbook and how to use their staff effectively.

Fernando Armas was responsible for taking the cover photo and also photographed many of the clubs and sports activities. The yearbook staff could always rely on Fernando when they needed a picture for their layout. The 1983 Outspokin' Bike Club, led by moderator Larry Long, enjoyed another successful year of bike tours to various areas. Chris Plunkett, Rob Olshaskie, and Erin Stuart, enjoyed the routes that they traveled. Due to poor weather, the club was unable to make additional trips, nevertheless, next year, if weather improves, trips to Russian River and San Luis Obispo will be included. (Diane)

Under the direction of Mrs. Higgins and Mr. Watson, the 1983 Ski Club had three successful ski trips where everyone was given the chance to leave school work behind and enjoy snow-covered mountains and fresh air. The Ski Club made day trips to Bear Valley and Squaw Valley and a two-day trip to Heavenly Valley, due to the bake sales that helped reduce the overall cost. The club hopes to be even stronger next year and make additional trips to other nearby ski slopes so that everyone gets the chance to take advantage of the refreshing outdoors.

Luau

The Polynesian Club had another fun-filled year. This year's moderators were Mrs. Joanne Hansen and Mr. James Maxwell; officers included senior Judy Nipay- President, junior Jeff Lola-Vice President, junior Viveca Valeriano-Secretary, senior Patrick Rivera-Sergeant At Arms.

The year began with the annual luau in the cafeteria. Mr. Morneau's hula was the highlight of the evening. There was roasted pig, pineapples and hula dancers-certainly a night to remember. The Christmas holidays began with the Club's visit to Parkmont Convalescent Home in Fremont with the members bearing gifts and singing carols. Throughout the year, there were lumpy sales during lunches. The proceeds from one of the sales were donated to the Alviso flood relief fund. Among the activities were Meet Morneau Day, a profitable Easter Egg Gram sale, and the end-of-the-year trip to Great America. The Polynesian Club hopes to participate in even more events next year. (Diane)

Cuisine

The French Club joined with a new club added to Moreau this year. The combined moderation of Mrs. Seigel and Mrs. Harper brought to Moreau the International Club. This club, led by President Lance Hastings, experimented with International Cuisine. Lance Hastings commented, "We cooked meals that are popular with people from other countries. This club should be a continued success and I encourage everyone that has a sweet tooth to join." (Diane)

Bop With Pop

From Chuck Berry to Michael Jackson, "Bow Your Sex Off" provided a never-ending list of hits like "Tina Turner" to the newest hit, "Men At Work."

The theme of Pop Rocks helped enhance this special night set aside for Daddy and his little girl.

"It was a lot of fun just spending time with my Dad," said senior Pom Placido.

A chance for girls to treat that special guy to dinner and the dance

Marriage ceremonies were performed, pictures of the couples were taken on hay stacks, and some of the best and newest music was played by the Music Master (Lisa)

Dungeons and Dragons

For its third year, the D&D Club met twice a week, playing the fascinating game of Dungeons and Dragons, a fantasy role-playing game, played completely on paper. The players consist of a dungeon master, who runs the game, warriors, clerics, and magic users, who also add to the fun. This year's moderators were Mr. Showers and Mrs. Glass. This year's president of D&D was Tom Kee. (Natalie)

Collectors' Club

A new club formed at Moreau this year was the Collectors' Club - quite an interesting club, since everyone has something or other that they do collect. Tom Kee organized this club as well, making sure that members always had a chance to trade or just show off their collections. (Natalie)

Senior Maureen Foley was honored by the Senior class moderators for her job this year as Secretary/Treasurer. Also, Dan McCrossen, a senior, was awarded the Father Moreau Medal for Christian leadership and service.

Other special awards included engraved plaques from the Bank of America to Seniors Patricia Belmessieri, Lisa Gaunt, and Brent Goodall in the fields of liberal arts, applied and fine arts, and mathematics, respectively.

As the evening came to a close, proud parents, friends, students, and teachers had cake in the cafeteria sharing their happiness and success. Congratulations to all those recognized and honored at the 1982-83 Annual Awards Night program. (Elizabeth)

Awards Night

May 11 meant the Annual Awards night, which began at 8 p.m. in the auditorium. Awards Night is a special time when the community recognizes the special efforts and achievements of individual students at Moreau High School.

Students who earned awards for service to their classes were Fred Walsh, Freshman, Judith Nipay, Lisa

Puccini and Stephanie Mendoza, Sophomores, Saul Rodriguez, Jill Pickard and Peggy Lynch, Juniors, and Theresa Carrillo, Becky Preciado, Glenn Alberici, Cathy Pickard, Karen Hoffman, Lori Henson, Judy Nipay, and Steve Woodall, Senior.

In addition, Pat Quain, the senior class President, was recognized for outstanding service as a class officer.

R.O.C.

The Regional Occupational Center (ROC) offered many different and interesting courses this year. A true alternative to conventional classroom instruction, ROC classes provided a "hands on" method of instruction for certain skills. Some of what was offered included auto mechanics, data processing, cosmetology, upholstery, and machine shop.

While here at Moreau, students attend six forty-five minute classes. Those involved in ROC would attend one class that would last for nearly three hours, and then come back to Moreau for three other classes. While the majority of the students at Moreau took classes for general education, the ROC students explored a possible career interest. (Dave G.)

“Service Above Self”

Interact was on the move this year. A service club for high school students, it provided them with an opportunity to work with one another to learn constructive leadership skills and personal integrity while striving for community improvement.

Paulo 'City' Darretto.

Senior Play

Directed and written by Darren Renville and Curt Hutchison, the Senior Christmas play was a well put together comedy which brought laughter to the whole student body. Three performances were held one for the senior parents and two shows for the school. The story revolved around Santa Claus being poisoned by evil scientists until he turned into a giant Santa. But in the end, justice was served by the discovery of a cure and the return of Christmas cheer. (Leo)

Talent Show

1) Joanne Cordova and Tamara Marchetti do a dance routine to the song, "Beat It" (2) Drummer Quinn McArthur provides the beat for the lead singer (3) Mike Rice shows his musical and comical ability all the time (4) Shannon Rodrigues and Pete Lopez crank it up for all to hear (5) Debbie Barrett kicks high in a practice before the show (6) Sharon Baldoza rehearses her singing to make it perfect for the performance (7) Robert Nunes practices his ballads

The annual talent show was presented by the junior class this year. A variety of acts kept the near capacity crowd well entertained. Dancers, musicians, singers, rock groups, comedians and jugglers provided a constant flow of entertainment.

Mark Campe did a stand-up comedy routine which included a mock version of a popular song, "Pretty Woman," which he titled "Sleazy Woman," and then returned later in the show to tell some of the jokes. A very talented pianist, Gene Toy, performed a piece of music that he composed himself. Wally and The Kulas, a group of male faculty members, did a fitness style rock band number which really impressed many in the audience.

Many others performed over the course of the night before it was time for the final act. DIONYSUS, fronted by Senior Danny Perez, rocked the auditorium for forty minutes. (Dave G.)

Stylin'

September was dressed in high style as the "tuxedo" look invaded Moreau. Wing-tipped shirts, bow tie, and cummerbunds were sported by both sexes, often by the girls with the uniform as well.

Throughout fall and winter, the ever-present "college" or "preppie" look continued to thrive. Topsiders and Dexter shoes increased in popularity as did the argyle sweater, and various knit shirts.

Bright colored mini skirts and dresses which seemed to be the last traces of the "Valley Girl," were fashioned in a frilly way, contrasting the tight ones worn in the '60's.

All in all, though fashion changed with the seasons, familiar headgear known as Walkman Stereos were popular all year long. Keeping Walkman's company, was the home computer. The computer had risen to such a power, Time Magazine named it

"Machine of the Year" instead of "Man of the Year."

Here, at Moreau, Eddie Money, Men at Work, Y and T, and Michael Jackson were some of the most listened-to musicians. Gumby and Pokey made a comeback, as did the '50's look in jeans, sweaters, and T-shirts. Comebacks like this bring to mind the familiar phrase "History repeats itself." As we look at the 1982 '83 school year, the fashions and fads certainly testify. (Joanne)

(2) The ruffled look was everywhere this year, in fashion, as well as advertising. (3) Mary MacPherson, a sophomore, could be a "real Val for sure" in her ruffled turquoise mini-skirt, a fashion look from Los Angeles where true Vals can be found. (4) Shrink-to-fit blue jeans were everyone's favorite this year. The burrito doesn't even have to be bought, because one that is too large, as they will shrink tremendously when first washed. (5) Debbie Paris prepares for college in a preppy way with a light-colored vest. (6) Senior Chris Evans relaxes in a comfortable Le Tigre shirt, just one of the numerous logo tops. (7) Brightly colored pointed shoes at the end of Nancy Laber's legs display her creativity and individuality. (8) Top Siders were extremely popular (again) at Moreau adding the finishing touches to the Polo-501 look. (9) The festival area became "Lake Moreau" during the terrible rains that occurred in February and March. Flooded fields caused many soccer, baseball, and softball events to be delayed and postponed. The track resembled a lake also, when combined with the football field. Everything was just a big mess. (10) Flood waters purged the outside entrance to A Hall, flooding parts of the hall for the rest of the day. Mike Schuyler grooves with his Walkman stereo during a break in one of his classes. (12) Daniel Tureaud laughs as her brother Dave gets a kiss from Miss Piggy herself on his 18th birthday. Singing telegrams, balloon-a-grams and the like were a popular way to say "Happy Birthday" to special people.

Adding to the variety, different groups of graduates this year, the graduates entered the Paramount with the traditional walk down the center aisles and the procession with their Spirit Week theme. Senior USA sang the National Anthem.

and Salutatorian Judy Nipoy addressed their classmates for the last time at the ceremony.

In their green and gold caps and gowns, the graduates gathered in the Paramount Theater growing restless as a handful of awards were given to outstanding students.

Anxiously awaiting their turn to receive that once in a lifetime walk across the grand stage, the students listened intently to hear their names, accept their diploma, and receive congratulations from Moreau's principal Bro. Joseph Connell. (Lisa)

A.S.B. Breaks Through

This year's A.S.B. under the direction of moderator Peter Peabody, began their year in July of 1982 when the officers attended a summer leadership program in Santa Barbara, California. It was this program that prepared them for the rough year which lay ahead—one full of hopes, dreams, some disappointments but mostly successes.

The theme the A.S.B. set for themselves during this time and carried out throughout the year was "Break on Through." This theme symbolized their goal of reaching out to the students and creating a fresh new outlook. This positive and innovative approach brought the A.S.B. through numerous events that they sponsored such as Spirit Week, Powder Puff Football and the Christmas Ball as well as the Blood Drives and the Special Children's Christmas Party.

A.S.B. President John Miranda put it best when he simply stated that the A.S.B. was "a new group of people just trying to make a difference" (Elizabeth)

"It was great! Making dinner and decorating my table was really fun. But the best part was meeting a lot of new friends," said enthusiastic Brenda Loggins when asked about the Freshman Box Social.

On Sept. 25, each freshman girl cooked up her specialty for that unknown freshman guy who was to be her date for the evening. Specialties included fried chicken, pizza, spaghetti and submarine sandwiches, but the favorite it seemed, was lasagna. ASB members counted a whopping twenty-nine dishes of this tasty pasta.

After dinner, it was off to Garin

Gym where freshmen couples danced to rock music played by "Blow Your Socks Off," a disc jockey service which has been to Moreau several times. Many new friends were made and the evening proved to be a great success. (Jennifer)

Spotlight:

Shuffle ... Step ... Kick ... are words familiar to the ears of Robert Tatad a jazz dancer since the age of ten. A true performer since he was four years old, he would dance to the music on the radio while singing into the end of a jump rope as if it were his microphone.

"Recognizing this, my mom took me to the Fremont Recreation Department where I took a class called Creative Rhythm," explained Tatad. The teacher there noticed potential in Robert and suggested he go to a studio.

His parents pursued this interest by enrolling Robert in some classes at the J&J Dance Studio in Fremont. In the four years the dancer spent there he took some rap, a little ballet and "all that jazz." After focusing on jazz for two years, Robert moved on to work with a private choreographer named George Minami, for whom he dances now. Since being with Mr. Minami, Robert has entered several amateur contests, winning three. He has entertained at the Alameda County Fair and has appeared on the TV show "All God's Children" four times. Robert enjoyed his first professional experience when he played a principal part in the production "Flower Drum Song." After auditioning on April 14, 1981 in Los Angeles he heard from the producer one month later and then in June was flown to St. Louis, Missouri, where the show ran from June 21 through June 27.

Robert would like to attend North Western University, a liberal arts school located outside Chicago which is famous for its dramatic arts programs. (Lisa)

How does it feel to have an older brother or sister here?

Jim Kearney- It has helped me to meet many friends, but sometimes it is a pain in the rear

Carlos Zertuche- It feels good because I get more help with directions, and I meet more people and they know me

Monica Murga- It is okay I have a sister who is a Senior and I've met some new people. She puts me down sometimes because I'm a Freshman

Caroline Walters- It doesn't feel any different because I never see him. The only time I remember he is here is when people say, "You're Chuck's sister? Oh My God!"

Melissa Lopez- I think it is okay. It is good to have someone to talk to if I need to

Hee Sook Yoo- I guess it is all right for the time being, because I don't feel alone and also, he drives me to school, which is far better than walking here!! (Diane)

"Ooh la la la, let's go dancin'" was the theme of the 1983 Soph Hop. It took place on March 26, from 8-11 p.m. in the cafeteria, yet with all the balloons and streamers, one wondered, "Where am I?" The music, which ranged from rock to soul to new wave, was supplied by the ever-so-popular, "Blow Your Socks Off"

Tuxedos and formal dresses, corsages and boutonnieres, helium balloons, carnations, and the theme of "We've Got Tonight" helped to make the Jr Prom a special night for the Class of 1984.

Setting the mood that accompanied the romantic atmosphere were the bands Network and Souled Out. The bands played every other hour giving people a chance to enjoy the music that they prefer.

Held at the Rheem Theatre in Moraga, enthusiastic students crowded the dance floor on April 30 ready to dance the night away.

Reflecting back on the evening one junior said, "The Jr Prom is one of the reasons that high school will always be special to me" (Lisa).

In His Service

This year, starting with the junior class each student was required to begin a Christian Community service project of at least forty hours. Beginning in the fourth quarter, 1983, students could volunteer in hospitals, parishes, organizations, or elsewhere in the community where people were in need of help. This was developed in keeping with Moreau's own philosophy that stresses the value of service to the greater community to which Moreau belongs. Each student had his own choice of service he wanted to do. Afterwards, each student reported to his sponsor, who advised, counseled and checked validations.

Students chose varied activities. Mike Jones, for example served as a volunteer at Washington Hospital. Rod Geoghegan worked with children at the YMCA. Joan Koslosky taught at a nursery school, and Nicole Spier worked in the snack bar during Little League games.

Gene Toy is a real piano wiz, as those on the fall junior retreat found out. He recalled that at the age of five his mother started him in piano classes. He hated them. He couldn't stand practicing and missing out on playing with his friends. In fact, he once actually kicked the piano.

Ten years and two instructors later, Gene has become a skilled pianist. His instructor works him hard and is always getting him to enter competitions and play in recitals. Practicing is something Gene does on his own now, whereas when he was younger his parents had to almost force him to sit at the piano. He's developed and applied his style and technique gradually over the years.

Gene hopes to some day make a career of music. He realizes competition is very stiff, however, he also feels that determination and practice will allow him to excel. Gene's interest also goes beyond performing, he has started writing his own music, too. This is what he enjoys most. "Love" songs, or ballads are his specialty, as the audience at the 1983 Talent Show discovered.

Who knows? Maybe Gene will go on to become a world famous piano player! Look out Liberace!!! (Dave G.)

Sr. Ball

The Galleria Showplace in San Francisco was the site for the class of 1983's Senior Ball. The Senior Ball held Wednesday, May 4, 1983, was a great success with the majority of the class in attendance. The band Laser Boy proved to be excellent and played music that got everybody up on the dance floor. The theme of the evening, "It's It", definitely set the tone of excitement for the evening an evening that will always remain special to the members of the class of 1983. (Elizabeth)

SENIOR FAVORITES

A Day on the Town

San Francisco, being a unique and favorite place in itself, provided a excellent setting for the class of 1983's Senior Favorites to be photographed. San Francisco's-like the Senior Favorites' fine characteristics seem to shine through in a very special way. Just as San Francisco is not necessarily the "best" city, the Senior Favorites are not the "best" Seniors either. Instead, each has particular qualities that his/her classmates have recognized and admired.

The locations we chose for the pictures were intended to highlight both the city's and the Seniors' special points. These locations ranged from the fast-paced Financial District to the "touristy" Fisherman's Wharf to the beautiful Golden Gate Park.

Everyone had a great time on our April 22 trip to "The City"-our Day on the Town. (Elizabeth)

Class Acts

by Joanne Gorges Illustrations by T. J. Brown and Dave T

Because it includes various courses, from world history to psychology and contemporary issues, the Social Studies Department is much like the members of its staff. Looking at the pictures on these pages, one sees many diverse images of these teachers.

For instance, Mr. Allen Acord, - or "Al" for short (photo 1)-taught freshman World History. In addition to dealing freshmen five class periods each day, Mr. Acord has been coaching the varsity basketball team for three

A new member to Moreau this year also was Mr. Jerry Sheets, (photo 2) who taught three Freshman World History classes. Mr. Sheets was busy all year long as head coach of JV Football and Baseball. In addition, he spent long hours as a strength coach for the wrestling squads. When asked how he felt about Moreau, he replied, "The attitude and enthusiasm of the students is outstanding."

Returning this year after maternity leave was Mrs. Anne Everton (photo 3). She was her same energetic self, reaching U.S. History to juniors and acting as a junior class moderator as well. She worked hard with the Close-Up group. We were glad to have her back.

Mr. Tony Dorado, (photo 4) was a Moreau graduate Teaching Psychology and Freshman World History, without the limits of his work at Moreau. Mr. Dorado led the JV. basketball team to a C.A.L. championship this year as head coach, and ran the intramurals program. "I like the Moreau students, talking with them as friends, not just in class."

Mr. Phil Wilder (photo 5) taught U.S. History to juniors. He also taught a class he designed himself-California History - to seniors. Besides being a senior class moderator, he was also the head coach of both the boys' cross country and track teams and was frequently seen jogging along Mission Blvd.

Mr. Barry Weiss's classroom, D-13

(center) was decorated by his students expressing their political opinions. Teaching U.S. Government and Contemporary Issues, Mr. Weiss encouraged his students to learn, to be involved, and to be responsible citizens. Because he believes in the need for better understanding of government, he headed the Moreau Close-Up Club, and this year had the honor of leading the the largest Close-Up delegation to Washington, DC.

In addition to all this, Mr. Weiss was the head Varsity Baseball coach.

Reflecting on the individuals who staffed Moreau's Social Studies Department, students and parents alike, can look backwards . . . or forwards, and know they are with people who cared. They not only taught but were coaches, moderators, and . . . friends. (Joanne)

The English Department, under the direction of Ms. Barbara Glass, has provided a variety of different courses. Besides the typical freshman and sophomore courses, upper-level students were able to choose from Journalism, Twentieth Century Lit., and Accelerated Reading. There are also Honors English courses for juniors and seniors.

Most of the time, the reason why this course is popular has to do with the fact that it deals with movies. When students watch movies, they are required to write essays, participate in discussions, and take tests. The techniques, directors, historical aspects of the films they watched during the course Ms. Candell, who developed the course, taught the students. It is a chance to learn about the movies in a fun and interesting way.

Several teachers, not pictured here, also taught one course each this year. Ms. Linda Erickson, Director of Curriculum, and Mr. Duane Ingram, Director of Alumni and Public Relations, taught Honors English to juniors. Mr. Petar Zegura, Dean, continued with Senior Honors. (Dave G.)

The Garin Group

This year's Home Economics Department was staffed by Mrs. Bonnie Gallogly, Ms. Laurie Ruppert, and Ms. Susie O'Neill. This department offered Gourmet Cooking, Intro. to Cooking, Intro. to Sewing, Beginning Sewing, Advanced Sewing, Independent Living and Family Living.

College bound? Troubled? Needed someone to talk to? The 1982-1983 counseling staff was always there.

The department was headed by

Ms. Mary Bertrand. The staff was as follows: College and scholarships Jim Maxwell (9 yrs.) Career- Mrs. Joanne Hansen (3 yrs.), Fresh/Soph Academics Mr. Jim Patterson (5 yrs), and Senior/Junior Academics- Mary Bertrand (7 yrs).

The 1982-1983 P.E. Department taught a variety of classes this year ranging from badminton to war ball and Health to Drivers Ed.

The department was headed by

Kathy Joseph and was staffed by seven teachers. The students felt that "P.E. was fun this year" and some said that "playing football with both guys and girls was funny."

Not pictured is Mr. Dan Boyett. Mr. Boyett took the place of Mr. Steve Martinez during the second semester. He taught for the remainder of the year, he taught P.E. and Driver's Education to Sophomore classes 9 (Jon

"Because of our inexperience many of our players needed to learn what the game of football is all about. By the end of the season players who really came a long way made a difference. Those players make coaching fun," said Coach Tim Walsh about the 1982 Mariner Varsity Football Team.

The team had a season record of 5-4-1. The year started off well but with five of the seven toughest teams in the East Bay in the CAL, Moreau always faced tough competitors.

Special honors went to Darrell Harrison who was named Player of the Year and was also selected to the first All-League team. Joining him were teammates Tony Ivaldi, Regan Candelario, and John Wenzler. Being named to the second team All-League were Mike Digiulio, Travis White, Steve Vannucci, Jon Moser, John Whitaker, and Eamon O'Malley. (Lisa

Ready, Set, Hike!

"Although our season ended with four wins and six losses, I believe we accomplished our goals as a team learning how to play Moreau Football. Those were the thoughts of JV Coach Jerry Sheets as he reflected on the 1982 football season.

Regarding its defense, Coach Sheets said the team was very consistent, with the tenacious play of linebackers Tom Odgers, David Fox and strong safety Mike Ogolin. The J.V.'s offense was led by quarterbacks Chris Manos and Mike Rebello, who were protected by a strong young line. Overall, Coach Sheets felt that most of the 1982 J.V. team will contribute to the Moreau Varsity program in the fall of next year. (Poul)

Fighting Frosh Never Say Die

The Freshman football team, despite a disappointing start, continued to improve all year and finished strong in league play. Sporting a misleading 1-6 record (1-2 in CAL), the freshman team can take pride in going all out in every outing. With an already swarming defense on his side, Head Coach Rich Serrao is especially proud of his secondary which never stopped improving throughout the whole season. With fine efforts from Tim Young, John Looney, Hector Martinez, Mike Rossi, and the rest of the freshman team, Coach Serrao found reason to be pleased with the play of each member. "These players will soon be the backbone of future Moreau dubs. We know that they will do an exceptional job." (Leo)

The hard-working girls' Cross Country team for the 1983 season consisted of a total of sixteen runners. On the Varsity team there were two seniors, one junior, two sophomores, and two freshmen. The remaining nine made up the J.V. team.

Ms. Chris Brown, the coach of the girls, said that this year's team was very young. But in spite of the youth, the Varsity placed fourth in league and thirteenth in North Coast Section, while the J.V. team took second in the league. The team, as a whole, had a record of three wins and three losses (Jan)

The Moreau Boys' Cross Country team, despite some disappointments, had a very good season in 1982. The team, guided by Coach Phil Wilder, closed out the season with impressive records. The varsity squad, aided by talented runners such as Paul Bigelow, Jeff Cardwell, and Matt Lotz, finished the season with a 6-1 record, placing second overall at the CAL League Meet. The JV. and Frosh teams finished third and second respectively in the CAL League Meet. Despite the team's impressive showings, the team did not achieve all of its pre-season goals, largely due to the illnesses and injuries that plagued the team all season long. Nevertheless, Coach Wilder has high hopes for next season. Saul Rodriguez, Mark Puppo, and Tim Soto will be among the seven varsity lettermen returning next year. "As always, we will be striving for high goals," Coach Wilder commented on his future cross country squad. (Leo)

Coached by Joanne Nichols and Annemarie Cota, Moreau's J.V. Volleyball team had an exciting season this year.

With six returning players and nine new ones, the team spiked their way to victory twelve times and were beaten only twice by the tough Presentation High School team.

Their overall record was 12-2 and their final standing in the league was second place.

At the end of the season, the J.V. Volleyball team had the opportunity to vote for those they felt most deserved recognition for their contribution into the team. The Boys Varsity Basketball team accomplished one of its main goals this year-making the playoffs in the rough Catholic Athletic League. The team went 7-5 in the preseason, while playing some of the best teams in the Bay Area. Highlights included wins over American and Amador, both of which won their leagues.

In the CAL the Mariners needed a strong second half of the league season in order to make the playoffs and they got it by going 5-2 to end up 8-6 overall. Big wins over DelaSalle and St. Elizabeth were crucial in the second half surge.

Seniors Tony Catson and Jim Griffin were to be congratulated for being selected to the C.A.L. All League team. Tony and Jim were also co-most valuable players of the team. Brian Hansen was chosen as most inspirational player, Larry Kevin, most improved player, and Geno Zertuche, "Mr. Manner" (Paul).

1983's J.V. basketball season proved to be successful. Under the coaching of Mr. Tony Dorado and with the support from their cheerleaders, the team placed first in CAL.

At one point in the season, the team had won eleven games straight, and finished the season with a record of eleven wins and three losses. They also placed first in Livermore's Junior Varsity Tournament.

Though the team owed much to the talents of Junior Mark Puppo and Sophomore Darren Lewis, Coach Dorado feels that "unity and spirit" were the keys to our success." (Jan)

"Before November I had expected to have an average season. The Girls' Varsity Basketball Team had an excellent season this year. Coach Paul Phelps, Coach Ron Rubio, and Coach John Radecke helped the team to an overall record of 23-5.

The team captured the CAL League Championship and then went on to win the CAL Play-offs.

In the first round of the NCS Play-offs the girls beat Pinole Valley but lost to Newark Memorial by two points in the semi final game.

Gaining special honors as the Most Valuable Players were Julie Radecke and Stephanie Meneze. Named as the Most Improved Player on the varsity level was Kathy Radecke. A dominating power in the CAL Moreau Varsity Soccer had yet another championship season. Omar Rodriguez' lone goal in the last match against De La Salle provided a perfect closing for a great season.

Coach Pat Rudy, the main reason for Moreau soccer, will not be returning next year. He has been head coach for four years and has led three teams to league championships. He began the girls' program, and so much more. Thanks Coach Rudy. We'll miss you.

The Junior Varsity Team, led by Coach Mark Talan were also league champions. Thanks to Coach Talan, Moreau sponsored the N.C.S. Semi-finals for the time. (Joanne)

Four years ago, there was no such thing as Moreau Girls Soccer. Now, after its third season, (two of which have earned trips to North Coast Section play-offs) Girls' Soccer at Moreau is well on its way.

Coch Coach Mark Rich, a 1980 Moreau graduate, was the original girls' soccer coach. Last year, he took over the boys' J.V., but this year, along with

Coch Clark Bales, he came back.

After a commendable season, and N.C.S. performance, many of the girls were honored as All-League selections. Representing Moreau on the All-League team, were: Joanne Gorges, Jana Heinlein, Julia Heinlein, Georgetown Kristoff, Lorraine Pereira, Scottia Rivenes, Trisha Roberts, Verna Rodrigues, and Rosie Sampson.

Although the girls lost to Granada in the N.C.S. Semi-final, Potty Atoyde, Joanne Gorges, and Trisha Roberts were named All-North Coast Section Selections. (Joanne)

Swimming, a very popular sport that has for many years been represented in the Olympics, has recently been added to Moreau's sports program. There are many students involved in the JV and Varsity teams ranging from freshmen to seniors who enjoy swimming with and competing against other area schools.

In their first year, the Manner Swim Team made a splash in Bay Area swimming. With 50 swimmers, under the direction of Coach Rich Serrao, both the Varsity and JV teams had winning records. The Varsity team was led by captains Pierre Brontome, and Julie Rodecke, while the JV Team was led by Jim Redmond and Nicole Ormsby.

The team's season was full of excitement and determination, as well as success which resulted in their victorious season of Varsity boys and girls 4-4, JV boys 3-2, and girls 5-0 (Diane)

Although it was a rough, frustrating season for Barry Ball at Moreau, Coach Weiss noted that there were some pleasant surprises. "Our five sophomores provided the nucleus for a championship team next year." Also, Coach Weiss expressed that the juniors will be back at key positions to lead the team. Senior Greg Hernandez and sophomore David Borghi were commended by Coach Weiss as the best pitching combination in the league. Another senior, Bob Hess, proved to be one of the league's best hitters with a .486 average. Junior Dan Bowen and sophomore Darren Lewis also proved to be important parts of the team. This seemed to be Barry Ball's last season at Moreau as Coach Weiss is retiring to make more time for his wife and children.

Coach Weiss commented on his retiring, "I have enjoyed the many truly outstanding people I have had the opportunity to work with. I would like to thank all my assistant coaches, the JV and Frosh coaches, and the support provided by the athletic director (Leo)." (Leo)

With eleven wins, three losses, the JV baseball team came in second place at the end of a fine season.

Coach Sheers, who did a remarkable job this year, was accompanied by Mike Pereira, a variety star last year.

Team standouts included sophomore Fernando Cuebas, who was voted "Most Inspirational." Paul Hempel, another sophomore pitched four winning games in a row this year earning him the "coaches award." Junior Mike Trask, an outfielder who batted .622 this season, was voted "Most Valuable Player" by his teammates. "We had a good season, and good coaches. I think a lot of these guys will be varsity players next year." (Joanne)

The JV boys track team finished well in the CAL league. Phil Wilder, Matt O'Brien, and Ron Debus led the team with spirit, encouragement and many hard workouts. Goals were set for each individual by the coaches and many reached their goals. Sophomore Todd McGrew, voted most valuable runner, was one example. Todd made it to the NCS finals for his speedy 100 meter dash. Everyone did a fine job and proved the track team was "cool." Bill Levine was awarded most valuable field events, Ron Avis received most inspirational and Eric Hartman earned the coaches' award.

Records were set during the 1982-83 track season. In the 1600 meter relay, Bill Cotter, Darrell Harrison, Chad Nightingale, and Robert Spodolski set a record. In the 110 meter high hurdles, Dave Tureaud set a school record of 145. All of the athletes mentioned above qualified and performed well enough to go on to the Meet of Champions. The varsity team had the same coaches as the JV, and also had pre-set goals, many of which were also met. At the end of the season at the awards banquet, awards went to: Paul Bigelow, most valuable runner, Larry Kevin, most valuable field events, Rob Spodolski most inspirational, and Darrell Harrison the coaches' award (Dave T.)

The 1982-1983 Girls' Track Team under the direction of Coach Chris Brown had a fantastic season despite the relative inexperience of the team. With only three returning seniors, the majority of the team was made up of freshmen. But as Senior Patti McDermott put it "The Freshman were great. What they didn't have in experience they definitely made up for in ability."

The team, overcoming a terribly rainy season, triumphantly ended the year with a first place tie. Coach Brown felt the team did as well as they did because of the strength they possessed in all three areas of track. These areas of sprinting, long distance and the field events were dominated by the seniors of the team. Sprinter

Patti McDermott excelled in the 100 and 200 meter races and received the award of M.V.P. of the team. Be Paynter was great in the 1 and 2 mile events and provided many of the needed points for Moreau victories. Jumper Kendra Vandernakke helped the team tremendously with fine finishes in the long, triple and high jumps. (Elizabeth)

Strong J.V. Team No Pushovers

The Moreau J.V. Wrestling team enjoyed a very successful year, closing this season with a 8-2 record. Many of the wrestlers did extremely well, placing in tournaments throughout the season. Their coach, Mr. Rich Dutra, was very excited by what he saw on the J.V. level and said many of the wrestlers would be varsity at any other school in the area. Some of the JV wrestlers who have an excellent shot at a varsity position next year include Mark Libby, Tim Higgins, Chris Manos, Dennis Finkis, Neil Santo Domingo, John Franco, Anthony Incentes, Rob Hall, Joe Baalman, and Rich Valle. Coach Dutra feels extremely fortunate to have such gifted athletes involved in this school program. (Leo)

Backhand, backswing, serve, and topspin are just a few of the terms familiar to the ears of Moreau's Girls Tennis Team coached by Ms. Nancy Geenen. A newcomer to Moreau, Geenen became involved with an enthusiastic group of players with potential, and taught them some of her own moves on the Chabor College Courts. Efforts by Most Improved play er Enny Halkyer; Most Valuable players Jess Gomez and Megan O'Neill; and Most Inspirational player Annette Voit, added to make the Tennis season full of competition, and excitement. The 1983 season was a good one for the Mariner golf team, under the guidance of coach Don Moreau. The team finished right behind undefeated St. Patrick's in the CAL competition. Because of the heavy rain during the season, many of the matches were postponed, making for a very busy last two weeks of the season. But the rain did not hinder the team as they were undefeated during that period. The heartbreaks of the season were the two losses to St. Patrick's, one by a stroke and another by eight. The starting players on this year's team were Jack Eckardt, Steve Sellards, Dave Baptist, Ryan Lema, Jim Murali, and Dave Jupina. Sellards highlighted his season by capturing medalist honors in the CAL playoffs (Paul)

Bowling

With new moderator Mrs. Marguerite Mueller directing the Moreau Bowling club ventured down to Hayward's Holiday Bowl every week on Wednesdays. The enthusiastic Manner bowler started off the year viewing instructional films before setting off for the lanes. These films informed the members on proper techniques and helped them improve their game play. Competition was fierce yet good friendships were formed. As it turn out everyone winners and losers, high scorers and low scorers went home happy week after week. (Leo)

Despite the rain, the Moreau Varsity Softball team had a very successful season. They ended the league with a 12-4 record. The team had nine returning players and added three outstanding members to complete their unit. The Manners placed three members on the CAL All-League first team and two received honorable mention. The first team honors went to Senior catcher Trish Roberts. Junior Outfielder Kim Pesicka, and Sophomore pitcher Karen Freitas. Honorable mention went to Sophomore shortstop Pua Santiago and Sophomore second baseman Shannon Galloway.

Although their season record put them in second place league standings, their capabilities were recognized and acknowledged and earned them an at-large berth in the NCS Playoffs (Jan D.)

When the lights go down on the city, we remember the sparkle, glitter and excitement.

We've worked hard for these nights. The past four years were spent rolling over books, notes, films, work sheets and work books. Our mornings and afternoons were spent at school. After school, for most of us, was spent at a job, club meetings or a sport. Our nights were spent much the same as the mornings—studying, looking over notes, memorizing. All of this was for an "A" instead of a "C" and all of it worthwhile in the long run.

Now it's time for the glitter, the fun the night. After a long four-year haul it's time to relax, laugh and enjoy the sparkle and excitement of the night. We've got an "Open invitation" to reflect on the past year. It was filled with a lot of hard work, but we've earned our fun times.

Now we continue the journey.

Lights Out

(1) Robert Spodobaiski and Carl Ramsell prepare to fly off into the twilight. (2) Norman DeCastro moodily stares into space. (3) Kim Hartman sings her heart out at the talent show. (4) Trisa Wyman, Denise Dougherty, Renee Carbone and Rosy Rios happily fill their stomachs at lunch. (5) Mark Campe's impersonation of Gandhi is almost as good as Beningsley's. (6) David Goldt is not shocked by anything he sees. (7)

Robert Spodobaiski practices his version of Judo on Mike O'Connor. (8) Tony Toney is all bundled up against the cold. (9) Steve Woodall goes cross-eyed over his class's monotony. (10) Michelle Craft smiles with relief at the end of a long day. (11) Bernie Abella and Becky Alvarez giggle at the antics of a classmate. (12) Seniors at play. (13) The End. (Jennifer)

Dear Helen,
Good girl, you
saved my page for me!
I've signed everyone's book on this page. I'm just weird, but being such a good friend of mine, you already know that. I had fun hanging around you this past year. We had fun talking and teasing people.
I'm going to miss talking to you after I graduate, so you had better keep in touch. Stay sweet!

Love
Annette

Helen,
Another
humble little note for my furs (haha) I hope you enjoy your ~~senior~~ junior year, you'd better work hard 'cause it's an important year. So keep up that 4.0 gpa (Good) luck,
Sim (Gallagher)
